

Delaware Taxpayer Portal –Withholding Reconciliation Bulk Filing

The following pages outline the steps required to file a Withholding Reconciliation bulk file return in the Delaware Taxpayer Portal.

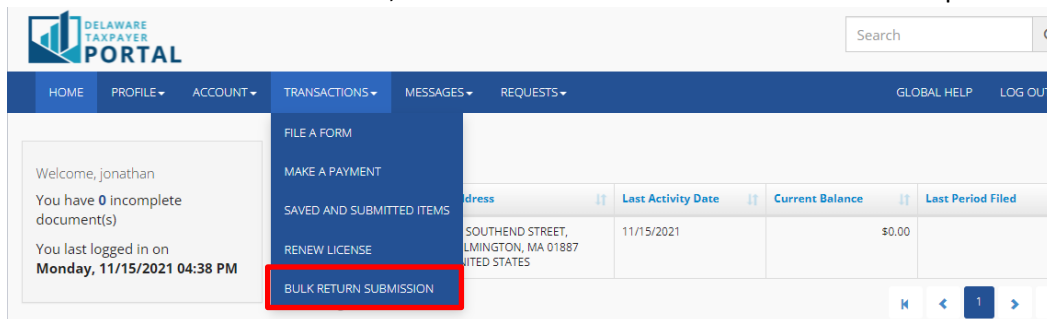

Before you can file a Withholding Reconciliation on the Portal, please ensure you have completed the following:

- Create and access your portal user account
- Locate and review the WTH/Bulk Filing account (step one below)

Note: If you do not have a Withholding/Bulk Filing account, email taxportal@delaware.gov.

1 Navigate to the File a Form page

From the “Transactions” header, select “Bulk Return Submission” from the drop-down menu.

2 Upload File

Complete the drop-down options to select your Business Name, Account, Account ID, Form Type, and File Type. You can download and fill out a template for the bulk submission using one of the links for an excel template (.xlsx) or CSV template (.csv). Once you have completed filling out the Excel (.xlsx) or .CSV (.csv), select “Add File” to continue.

Note: The template for 2021 has been updated. It is recommended that you download and complete one of the templates on this page.
